From the imagination of Tiana Laveen comes an eye-opening, page-turning, sensually enthralling compilation of diverse love stories presented in the "Cross Climax" series. "Jock of all Trades" – Football star Steven Johnson is used to getting what he wants. Despite Steven's charm, he is unable to attract the interest of Afrocentric Dr. Sandra Bell. After a chance hook-up involving a holiday raffle, they are shoved into a date which leads to an evening of passion. This unwraps a painful past for Dr. Bell, forcing her to either confront her demons or run away into the protection of denial. Will the seemingly frigid Dr. Bell succumb? All is fair in football and X-rays. “White Hot Fire” – Set in 1956, David Stone is a divorced fireman. He has one son he is raising solo and has hired an Art History college student, Patricia Edwards, to be his child's caretaker. Patricia is a beautiful, unconventional, young, African-American woman. David and Patricia soon realize their strong attraction for one another and seize it, but not without dire consequences in a time of racial tension and upheaval. “My One and Only” – This is the story of Nyko, an attractive, bright, but slightly jaded college student from the Midwest. She meets James Edmundson, an intelligent, mysterious, bi-racial man who could easily pass for Caucasian. He is harboring a deep secret that has been tearing his soul apart. Nyko and James have a brief, torrid love affair in which their chemistry goes above and beyond the normal connection. Can this bond be permanently broken even after excessive absence? Only time will tell. “Spanish 'Lust'abies” – Puerto Rican music producer Jaivin Cortes touches musical talent and instantly turns them into gold. He has a clear plan and direction for his life until he meets two women: Denise Miller, a caring and witty upscale Manhattan boutique owner implanted from Savannah, GA and Antidote, a sensual, mysterious seductress he cannot get off his mind. Who will Jaivin choose, or will he have his cake and eat it too? Black stockings and handcuffs are required.*Also included, a sneak peek at “Cross Climax II”!

From the award-winning author of ROAD TO PERDITION, the new QUARRY novel continues the deadly story of the assassin who stars in the acclaimed Cinemax original series Memphis, 1975. “Raunchy” doesn’t begin to describe Max Climer’s magazine, Climax, or his all-hours strip club, or his planned video empire. And evangelists, feminists, and local watchdog groups all want him out of business. But someone wants more than that, and has hired a killer to end Max’s career permanently. Only another hit man – the ruthless professional known as Quarry, star of the acclaimed series on Cinemax – can keep Climer from becoming a casualty in the Sexual Revolution.

The cry of Jesus on the cross described in the gospels of Mark and Matthew was a wail of pain and abandonment. Many Christians have been scandalized by it. On one hand it is an expression of the humanity of Jesus, while at the same time it links him with his Jewish heritage and the rich imagery of the psalms. Italian theologian Gerard Rosse has examined the many meanings of Jesus’ cry. He first considers the historical question - whether these were truly the words of Jesus. If we assume that they are, what do the words mean? Was it merely a cry of despair, or does it reveal something of the relationship between Jesus and the One called Abba? Theologically, what light does it cast on the inner life of the Trinity? Rosse also considers the reality of abandonment in the world today and what the outcry of Jesus reveals about our solidarity with all abandoned people.

Searching for mythical beasts, a family ignores the monster in the backyard It all started with the death of an ape. This is not so odd in Monkeyland, the sanctuary that Patrick and Jane founded together in a last-ditch attempt to revive their flagging marriage. But there was something different about this dead ape, and Patrick soon becomes obsessed with uncovering the mystery surrounding its death.

Meanwhile, Jane's in Zaire shooting a nature show and possibly cheating on Patrick with the producer; their son, Charlie, was fired from the sanctuary after an altercation with a customer; and daughter Jo is home from boarding school but may as well have stayed for all they see her. Then there's the predatory cat stalking the periphery of the dilapidated zoo, dodging just out of sight, evading capture, and driving Patrick's obsession to a fever pitch. While Jane and Patrick follow their preoccupations, searching for wild beasts, they manage to ignore the one growing in their midst. Finally, a gruesome act forces the family to come to terms with a dark reality.

In this New Studies in Biblical Theology exploration of Mark's Gospel, Peter G. Bolt looks at why the cross is so prominent in the narrative, asks what contribution Mark's teaching can make to our understanding of the atonement and shows how this teaching can inform, correct and enrich our own preaching of the gospel in the contemporary world.
