reading process through the development of reading strategies which assist decoding and construct meaning. The teacher guides or ‘ scaffolds ’ their students as they read, talk and think their way through a text (Department of Education, 1997).

Guided reading

Guided reading was explained as a small group, round-robin reading scenario. Each student reads a page/paragraph from a text, specifically selected for their guided reading group. The students that aren ’ t reading aloud, follow along with the student who is reading.
