There's no social expectation for the woman to pick up the man. Socially, women are still seen as too weak to be a danger, and apparently too incapable to chauffeur. I doubt men always want to drive or plan the date. A lot of women want to pick and lead the way to their destination. Equality is about creating a balance.

True Feminism Means Farewell To Chivalry | New University

A well written story of one women's life of being in wrong place at wrong time - the author writes from her perspective about life in the U.S. and Japan as independent young woman - and how both Japanese and U.S. society and eventually a U.S. Attorney General decide to victimize her for nationalism and political gain.

African American women were first brought to Virginia in 1619 three women and 20 men. They were sold into bondage to wealthy Planters like Governor George Yeardley. As time passed African American women forced to work in the fields and do jobs that were known as part of the men's role in American and European society, as well as perform domestic ...
